Health advocates score Recto attack on civil society groups

By Philip C. Salinas

Health advocates pummeled Gov. Jesse White's attack on the National Health Care Reform Commission (NHCRC) Monday, saying it was a "disgraceful" attempt to silence critics of the health care system.

"It's a disgraceful attempt to silence critics of the health care system," said the executive director of the American Public Health Association, Dr. John A. Peltz.

"We're not a health care reform commission," Peltz said. "We're a health care reform commission."

White's statement, which was published in the Boston Herald, said that the NHCRC was "a waste of money."

Cabinet execs tell senators sin tax should generate P40B to P60B

By Marjorie and Marjorie

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — Cabinet executives told senators on Tuesday that a 10 percent sin tax on alcohol and tobacco would generate P40 billion to P60 billion annually, depending on the rate of consumption. The executives also said that the government would not raise the tax on alcohol and tobacco to P100 billion, as some senators had suggested.

Crumb from the master's table

Public
Letter

March 16, 1987

Dear Sirs:

I am writing to you to express my disappointment and frustration over the recent developments in the Philippines. The government's actions have been nothing more than a series of crumb from the master's table.

The people have been deceived and misled. The government has been dishonest and untrustworthy. The people have been treated as mere pawns in a game of power and greed.

I am sure that you will understand my feelings and will take appropriate action to address the concerns of the people.

Sincerely,

Globalport nails 1st PBA victory

By Phangil Canlas

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — Globalport F.C. secured its first PBA victory on Sunday, defeating the defending champion, the San Miguel Beermen, 101-95 in a closely contested match.

The victory was a significant milestone for Globalport, who entered the tournament as underdogs. The team's performance was led by their star player, who scored a career-high 35 points. The win also marked the beginning of a new era for the franchise, as they look to establish themselves as a competitive force in the PBA.

Globalport's victory was a testament to their hard work and dedication. The team's coach, who has led the franchise through several seasons, praised his players for their teamwork and resilience. He said, "This win is a great start, but we know there's still a long way to go. We'll continue to work hard and strive for excellence in every game we play."

New 20-man pool, 2 int'l tournaments for Smart Gilas

By Phangil Canlas

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — The Smart Gilas basketball team will be competing in a new 20-man pool for the 2017 FIBA Asia Cup. The team will also participate in two international tournaments, the 2017 FIBA Asia Cup and the 2017 FIBA World Cup. The Smart Gilas team is led by coach Yeng Ayoang and consists of 20 players, including several international stars. The team is expected to be a strong contender for the championship in both tournaments.

TV5 to launch women's volleyball pro league

By Phangil Canlas

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — TV5 is set to launch a women's volleyball professional league, which will feature the top teams from the Philippines and other Asian countries. The league is expected to start in 2018 and will be a significant addition to the country's sports landscape. The league's launch is part of TV5's commitment to promoting women's sports and providing a platform for female athletes to showcase their talents.

The league will consist of 12 teams, with each team having a roster of 12 players. The league's format will include a regular season followed by a playoff. The league's launch is expected to attract a large audience and generate significant revenue for the sport.

The league's launch is a testament to the growing popularity of women's sports in the Philippines. It also provides a valuable opportunity for female athletes to compete at a professional level and gain exposure to a wider audience. The league's success will depend on the quality of the teams and the support of the fans.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT RETAIL TREASURY BONDS

As the Federal Reserve's quantitative easing program winds down, investors are looking for ways to protect their portfolios from volatility. Retail Treasury bonds are one option.

What are retail Treasury bonds?

Retail Treasury bonds are U.S. government securities that are sold directly to the public. They are available in denominations of $100, $500, and $1,000.

How do retail Treasury bonds work?

When you buy a retail Treasury bond, you are lending money to the U.S. government. The government will pay you back the principal amount plus interest at a later date.

What are the benefits of retail Treasury bonds?

Retail Treasury bonds are considered one of the safest investments available. They are backed by the full faith and credit of the U.S. government.

What are the risks of retail Treasury bonds?

The main risk of retail Treasury bonds is that interest rates may rise, which could cause the value of the bond to fall. However, this risk is generally considered to be low.

How can I buy retail Treasury bonds?

You can buy retail Treasury bonds through a variety of channels, including the U.S. Treasury Department's website, a broker, or a bank.

What is the minimum investment for retail Treasury bonds?

The minimum investment for retail Treasury bonds is $100. You can also invest in increments of $100 up to $10,000.

How long does it take to receive my retail Treasury bond?

It typically takes about two weeks to receive your retail Treasury bond after you have purchased it.

What happens if I need to sell my retail Treasury bond before it matures?

If you need to sell your retail Treasury bond before it matures, you can do so through a broker. The price you receive will depend on the current market value of the bond.

Are there any fees associated with buying retail Treasury bonds?

There are no fees associated with buying retail Treasury bonds directly from the U.S. Treasury Department. However, there may be fees if you buy them through a broker or bank.

What is the interest rate on retail Treasury bonds?

The interest rate on retail Treasury bonds is determined by the U.S. Treasury Department. It can vary depending on the maturity of the bond.

What is the maturity date of a retail Treasury bond?

The maturity date of a retail Treasury bond is the date when the U.S. government will pay back the principal amount of the bond.

Are there any tax implications for retail Treasury bonds?

Interest earned on retail Treasury bonds is subject to federal income tax. However, it is exempt from state and local taxes.

What is the best way to invest in retail Treasury bonds?

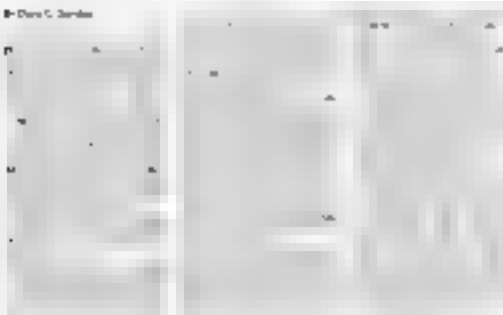

The best way to invest in retail Treasury bonds is to buy them directly from the U.S. Treasury Department. This ensures that you are getting the best price and that your investment is secure.

Bloomberg beta big on gaming

By David L. Lewis

It's a new, uncharted territory for the company, but Bloomberg is betting big on gaming. The company, which has been a leader in financial data and news, is now expanding into the gaming industry. This move is seen as a significant diversification strategy for the company, which has traditionally been focused on financial services. The gaming industry is a rapidly growing market, and Bloomberg is positioning itself to capture a share of this market. The company's gaming division is expected to focus on providing data and analytics to gaming companies, as well as developing new gaming products. This move is seen as a bold step for Bloomberg, which is known for its conservative approach to business. The gaming industry is a highly competitive market, and Bloomberg is facing significant challenges in this new space. However, the company's strong financial background and reputation for accuracy and reliability are expected to give it a competitive edge. The gaming division is expected to be a major focus for Bloomberg in the coming years, and the company is investing heavily in this area. This move is seen as a key part of Bloomberg's long-term strategy to expand its market reach and increase its revenue. The gaming industry is a complex and rapidly changing market, and Bloomberg is expected to face many challenges in this new space. However, the company's strong financial background and reputation for accuracy and reliability are expected to give it a competitive edge. The gaming division is expected to be a major focus for Bloomberg in the coming years, and the company is investing heavily in this area.

Unilag, QC gov't intensify partnership to reduce incidence of maternal death

UNIVERSITY of the Philippines (Unilag) and the Quezon City government (QC) have intensified their partnership to reduce the incidence of maternal death in the city.

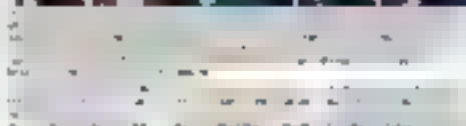

The partnership, which has been in place since 2010, involves the two institutions working together to provide comprehensive maternal and child health services to the residents of QC.

Unilag's commitment to the partnership is reflected in its provision of medical services, training, and research to the QC health system. The university's medical center, the University of the Philippines - Manila Medical Center, is one of the largest and most advanced in the Philippines.

The QC government, on the other hand, provides the infrastructure and resources needed for the partnership to be successful. This includes the provision of land, buildings, and equipment for the health facilities.

The partnership has resulted in a significant reduction in the incidence of maternal death in QC. In 2010, the rate was 15.5 per 1,000 live births. By 2015, it had decreased to 10.5 per 1,000 live births.

The two institutions are committed to continuing their partnership and working towards the goal of eliminating maternal death in QC.

The partnership between Unilag and QC is a testament to the power of collaboration in improving public health. By working together, the two institutions have been able to provide high-quality maternal and child health services to the residents of QC.

The partnership has also resulted in the development of new medical technologies and the training of a new generation of medical professionals. This has helped to improve the overall health of the community.

The partnership is a model for other cities in the Philippines and around the world. It shows that with the right resources and commitment, it is possible to significantly reduce the incidence of maternal death.
